ONLINE CLASSES

Ben King, adult student, oil painting, Adult Composite Class; Molly Dekarski, watercolor, age 15, Fundamentals Class; Sam Eiken, age 16, Character Design Class; Aaron Lipstein, age 17, Digital Illustration Class

1. We have found that Online classes are great for students who struggle to find the motivation to work on projects at home.
2. The online classes will be held via Zoom. An invitation will be sent to participants 15 minutes before a class begins, with students entering the Zoom classroom 5 minutes before class time.
3. Throughout the class students may send photos of their work to their teacher via email. Photos will be shared and analyzed by way of the screenshare feature on Zoom. This will give everyone the opportunity to learn from other students' projects.
4. We realize that The Art Academy benefits students in two distinct ways. First, there is the instruction; but equally important is the informal interaction pupils have with fellow students and teachers. To that end, EVERY online class comes with a weekly Friday Night Hangout Session. There is always a teacher monitoring the session so students can get extra help with any challenges they may be experiencing in their artwork.
